Conditions and limitations: -

1. To comply with the Documentation of Compliance SCV2.
2. Upon sale of the vessel Mecal must be notified immediately.
3. When the vessel is sold this certificate will be automatically cancelled.
4. All vessels that require stability information must carry the relevant stability information on board the vessel.
5. Damage, detrimental to the safety of the vessel must be reported to Mecal, together with the measures proposed to effect repairs. Where the vessel suffers major damage the owner/managing agent must notify the Certifying Authority immediately, explaining the circumstances by which the vessel became damaged. The nature and extent of major repairs are subject to the approval of the Certifying Authority. The Mecal Certificate will be automatically suspended and reinstated when repairs have been completed to the satisfaction of Mecal. Accident reporting is also governed by the requirements of MGN 458 as published on the MCA website.
6. Modifications must also be reported to Mecal and approved as required by the relevant part of the Code. "Modification" means any material change to the vessel or its equipment that would affect the vessel's compliance with statutory requirements, or that would require an amendment to its statutory certification, including the SCV2. In all cases Mecal reserves the right to carry out a confirming survey if deemed necessary. Operators have an obligation to report changes or damage to a vessel to the vessel's Certifying Authority under section 27 of the relevant Code. Failure to notify modifications or damage may be considered an offence.

This vessel shall not proceed more than 60 miles from a UK safe haven or on an international voyage, and shall only operate from UK ports.
